

Round turn two half hitches

Pass the working end of the rope around the pole

Take the working end through the loop that has been formed

Wrap the working end around the pole again

Take the working end over the standing end again

Take the working end over the standing end of the rope.

Take the working end through the loop that has been formed

Finally pull tight